

DIRECTOR BIO

Beatrix Ryle (Writer, Director, and Additional Editor) - Beatrix has always had a passion for film, beginning with making short films during high school and continuing to earn a BFA in Film Production from Chapman University in 2017.

Since then, Beatrix has worked on numerous independent and studio-backed projects in a variety of roles. From writer to director, sound designer to editor, she has applied her varied skillset across films, television, and even video games. But across it all, she has had a lifelong commitment to telling compelling stories, no matter the medium.

"Gitta" is Beatrix's feature-length directing debut.
